GLORIA CHIEN & SOOVIN KIM · ARTISTIC DIRECTORS

2022 Summer Festival Highlights

Our world is full of beautifully diverse cultures that are interconnected in remarkable ways. The exchange of ideas between people from different parts of the world has created a vibrant musical fabric that today's composers continue to use in their fresh creations.

Throughout our 2022 Summer Festival, Inspirations & Influences, we will explore and celebrate ways in which composers are impacted by their peers while retaining their own distinct voices. Composers and their pieces will often "talk" to each other on these programs: Claude Debussy's harmonic liberation leading to George Crumb's wildly colorful orchestration of Black American spirituals; Maurice Ravel, Reena Esmail, and Henry Cowell incorporating styles and tonalities of traditional music from Asia; and Melinda Wagner's modern-day reimagining of one of the great works of the 17th century, Henry Purcell's Dido and Aeneas.

Please join us for our picnic and concert tradition at Reed College, the New@Night series in the lobby of Portland Center Stage at the Armory, the Protégé and Artist Spotlight recitals, our inaugural summer at the new Patricia Reser Center for the Arts in Beaverton, and multiple venues around the city. It will be an enriching summer festival, full of exciting newer compositions and beloved masterpieces!

WEEK 1 - HONORING THE PAST AND LOOKING FORWARD

We kick off the festival recognizing CMNW's first five decades, and honoring David Shifrin's incredible 40 years of leadership as our Artistic Director! Join David and many more of our longtime CMNW-favorite musicians to celebrate the past, present, and future in an opening week of musical inspiration!

WEEK 2 - RECOGNIZING CULTURE AND CONTINUUM

Week Two introduces the future of CMNW with the amazing talents of 2022 Protégé Artists Zlatomir Fung and the Viano Quartet. These internationally-acclaimed young artists headline a journey through time and place exploring how musical heritage evolves into new and glorious sounds.

WEEK 3 - PAINTING VIBRANT PICTURES WITH MUSIC

Out of Claude Debussy's colorful soundscapes, Week Three is a mosaic that unfolds across time and styles. The journey leads us through George Crumb's epic songbook of Black American spirituals, then turns to explore works inspired by Eastern styles and textures.

WEEK 4 - PREPARE TO BE WOWED

From Andy Akiho's scintillating Seven Pillars to the premiere of Pulitzer Prize winner Melinda Wagner's inventive Dido Reimagined with world-renowned soprano Dawn Upshaw and the Brentano Quartet, to the dynamic Sinta Quartet, Week Four will be the highlight of your summer.

WEEK 5 - OUT WITH A SHIMMER

The festival finale week is filled with musical poetry — from David Schiff's vineyard-inspired world premiere, to chanteuse Fleur Barron's evocative voice. Our festival concludes with romantic, effervescent, masterpieces that celebrate the transformative power of love.
